My dear Mr. Forman

I beg to acknowledge the receipt of the Subscription List, and knew not how to thank you sufficiently for all your kindness, and the great trouble I have occasioned you.

I see in the list the names of your friends las Señoras Rossetti. Have the goodness to thank them warmly in my name, as well as my other friends or acquaintances of yours, who have been equally kind and generous to me.

Considering the uncertain state of affairs here, and in my poor opinion, the Republic is not far distant, I quite agree with you, that it is better to sacrifice a few pounds of interest, and deposit £230 in the Bank of England, and for the remaining £21 you will be kind enough to send me a Cheque, when convenient.

Henceforward, with the help of the pension, I hope I shall not be obliged to travel again.

I am much obliged to you for the spectacles, they suit my sight exactly, and are a great blessing to me. By the bye I think you must have made a mistake in the price, for I have hitherto always paid twelve or thirteen shillings a pair.

With kindest regards to yourself and family, Believe me to remain

Dear Mr Forman

Yours very sincerely
Fanny Keats de Laune

My dear Mr. Torrance

Many thanks for the Cheque which reached me in safety. I am quite vexed with my stupidity in not explaining my wishes respecting the balance in hand more clearly. I ought to have said invest and not deposit

My object is to invest it in Consols, and thus prevent me from drawing on the small capital upon any trivial occasion. At the same time it is a great pleasure to me to act at all times according to your advice.

"Si Dios quiere" on the 5th of April I will send you the certificate as you requested me to do.
